President’s Message
Bev. Butula, Davis & Kuelfthau

As the 2004-05 term comes to a close, it is time to reflect. It is also a time to say thank you. And, it is a time to look forward. We had an excellent array of speakers and programs this past year. I would personally like to thank all our speakers this year -- the folks at the Legislative Reference Bureau, Rick Hendricks, Professor Lipinski, Mary Jo Hansen, and Barb Dimick -- for taking time from their busy schedules to address our group. Each meeting was unique, informative, and quite a success. I would also like to express my appreciation to both LEXIS and WESTLAW for their constant support of LLAW. Without them, we would not have been able to provide such wonderful events. And, I want to say “thanks” to the Wisconsin Chapter of SLA (especially Amy Disch and Kathy Fischer) for co-hosting the ComedySportz event. Many of us are still laughing!!!!

A revision of the LLAW Bylaws also took place this year. Thank you to all the members who attended the meeting in Johnson Creek, we appreciate you attending. Thanks again to Bonnie, Connie and Carol for all their efforts on this project. Check out the revised Bylaws on the LLAW website.

Another interesting project this year, is the “Public Access to Legal Information and Assistance in Wisconsin: A Statewide Survey” headed by Paula Seeger and the PALI committee. This extensive project consisted of polling the Clerk of Courts, public libraries, and academic libraries. A final report, which will be presented to the court system, should be available later this summer. This will be such a valuable tool!

The LLAW Newsletter, official publication of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin, Inc., is published quarterly in Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter and distributed to all LLAW members. Dues renewal falls in June of each year. Subscription rate is $4.00 to non-members. For membership information contact Carol Schmitt, Chair of the Membership Committee, Boardman Safrin Curry & Field LLP, 1 S. Pinckney St., Ste 410, Madison WI 53701-0927 (608/283-7514). Address all inquiries or items of interest to the LLAW Newsletter Editor, Julia Jaet, Marquette University Law Library, PO BOX 3137, Milwaukee WI 53201-3137 or by e-mail to julia.jaet@marquette.edu. Send contributions to Bev Butula, Davis & Kuelthau, S.C., 111 E. Kilbourn Ave, Milwaukee WI 53202 or by email to bbutula@dkattorneys.com.

I. President Bev Butula called the meeting to order at approximately 12:40 pm.

II. Minutes for the January 18, 2005 (Third Quarterly) Board Meeting were approved.

Motion:  Kellee Selden-Huston; second: Jim Mumm

III. Treasurer’s Report (Jim Mumm)

Treasurer’s Report approved.

President’s Report – Bev thanked everyone for their work on the Board this year, and handed out treats to Board members in appreciation for their service. Bev gave an update of the new members in leadership positions for the coming year: Heidi Yelk will replace Amy Gannaway as Web Committee Chair; Susan O’Toole will replace Carol Bannen as head of the Special Articles Committee.

V. Committee Reports

Archives – No report.

Government Relations – Tony is continuing to monitor developments, and will have his annual report ready by May.

Grants – Amy T said the deadline for grant applications for the AALL conference is April 1 (tomorrow). So far, she has only received one application. (The location of the meeting in San Antonio – a longer distance away – could be a deterrent to some people.) The Board agreed that she should extend the deadline to April 15th.

Membership – Carol S reported that there are currently 110 LLAW members, including 92 active members, 10 associate, 4 sustaining, 4 student. She asked whether there was anything additional to add to the membership renewal forms she will send out soon; the Board said no.

Newsletter – the deadline for the upcoming newsletter is May 2nd.

Jim said these balances do not take into account the receipts and expenditures involved for tonight’s meeting.

IV. President’s Report – Bev welcomed everyone to LLAW’s fourth quarterly and annual meeting for 2004-05. She thanked every Board member for their service this year, and said that there are some Board positions which need to be filled for next year – she will send an email to the LLAW listserv with further details on this. Bev noted that, traditionally at this final membership meeting of the year, the gavel is passed from the former President to the new one; in this case, she figuratively passed the gavel to herself, since she succeeded Ted in January when he left, and she will continue as President next year.

Bev then cited the accomplishments of LLAW this past year – the Articles for Publication project; Bonnie Shucha and Paula Seeger’s blogs, which are great resources; the WLA “Webbie” Award won by the Wisconsin State Law Library’s web site; the numerous LLAW members who have been speakers at various events. She asked people to keep up the great work, and to be sure to make their accomplishments known to the organization.

V. Committee Reports

By-Laws Committee – Bonnie thanked everyone for their attendance at this meeting. Since there is a quorum at this meeting, it is an official meeting, and therefore meets the bylaws requirement that any proposed changes to the bylaws must be presented to the membership at an official general membership meeting. Ballots will be sent to each member to cast their vote on approval of the bylaws within a week. The last times the bylaws were revised, in 1996 and again in 2000, the changes were not as extensive as the current ones. Bonnie then proceeded to present each of the proposed changes to the bylaws (document attached).

At this point, there was a brief break in the meeting in order to wish Connie Von Der Heide a happy birthday.

Archives – No Report.

Public Access to Legal Information Committee Annual Report
2004-2005

The PALI committee did not physically meet in 2004-05, but was still active. Below is a report of our goals and activities.

1. 2003 PALI Guide
   At least four Introduction to legal materials: a manual for non-law librarians in Wisconsin booklets were sold in 2004-05. Sunil Rao has agreed to continue to be the contact for sales and printing of the booklet.

2. “Public Access to Legal Information and Assistance in Wisconsin: A Statewide Survey”
   Public Access to Legal Information and Assistance in Wisconsin: A Statewide Survey is the title of the project that PALI is working on in conjunction with the Dane Co Legal Resource Center and WI State Law Library. Here is a summary of the action on this project:
   - Phase I: Surveys of the District Court Administrators regarding legal assistance programs available to the public in courthouses—100% response rate
   - Phase II: Surveys of Clerks of Circuit Court regarding legal resources available to the public in courthouses—100% response rate
   - Phase III: Examination of public, academic, and special libraries websites and catalogs for currency of and access to legal resources. The two most populous cities’ public libraries in each county were examined as well as any special or academic libraries in the county. Two volunteers from UW-Madison’s library school helped with this phase of the project by completing catalog searches and examinations of library websites.—100% complete
   - Phase IV: Review of data gathered. A written report summarizing findings will be generated and presented to the court system, interested court and legal officials, as well as the public. Hopefully, this includes publication of a summarized report in library or legal professional journals. This phase is about 5% complete with an anticipated completion date of July or August 2005.

3. Budget Priorities Study
   We have a goal to begin research on a budget priorities study for WLA testimony for the next biennial budget. This study will identify priorities, using data collected from public law libraries in Wisconsin, and suggest action by WLA/state legislature for the next budget cycle. We have not yet begun research, but anticipate a draft to be ready for testimony in 2006 for the next budget cycle (2007-08).

4. @ Your Law Library campaign
   We are beginning to plan an “@ Your Law Library” campaign to emphasize access to legal resources for the public at law libraries and public libraries. I’m hoping to start arranging these presentations for fall 2005. We’re developing a bank of resources, such as two versions of PowerPoint presentations or handouts, so that whoever is willing to present something can use these resources to plan a presentation.

5. Committee Budget
   We requested $150 for budgeted supplies and postage. We did not use any of this requested money. We have generated $70.00 worth of revenue.

Are you a New Academic Law Librarian?
Our Reception in San Antonio is for you!
Julia Jaet, Marquette University Law Library

Please join your colleagues at CONALL – the Conference of Newer Academic Law Librarians. Come and meet your fellow academic law librarians and be introduced to the world of law school librarianship. This year’s CONALL event will discuss issues in serving law students and faculty and in promoting scholarship and research within the legal academic community.

Who: Newer academic law librarians and their mentors
Where: St. Mary’s University School of Law
When: Tuesday, July 19th, 5:15 p.m. – 6:15 p.m.
4:45 p.m: CONALL bus will leave the Marriott Rivercenter, Commerce Street exit

Sponsored by the Academic Law Libraries Special Interest Section (ALL-SIS), and generously underwritten by West this year, CONALL continues to provide the newest members of ALL-SIS and their mentors a chance to begin the exciting process of forming new professional relationships. It is conveniently held right before the ALL-SIS Reception and Awards Ceremony.

The CONALL/Mentoring Committee is looking forward to seeing you in San Antonio!
Visit http://www.aallnet.org/sis/allsis/ to see other programs and events sponsored by ALL-SIS.

Going to San Antonio? You Need the Local Advisory Committee Site
Paula E. Howe, ExxonMobil Law Library

A visit to the Local Advisory Committee (LAC) web page can simplify and enliven your trip to San Antonio for this year's Conference. The page contains "Essential" information plus tips on how to "Enjoy San Antonio." Either go directly to the LAC page, http://www.stcl.edu/aall, or click your way there from AALL's homepage, http://www.aallnet.org, click on Annual Meeting, General Information, Local Advisory Committee Page).

Under "Essentials" are photos of the Conference hotels, a guide to booking a room, and options for transportation from the airport to your hotel. "Enjoy San Antonio" contains guides written by LAC Committee members to help you pack the most fun into your visit. These guides include nightlife, shopping, live music, museums and galleries, bookstores, music stores, libraries, fun for families and kids, internet access, excursions, outdoor activities, fitness centers and spas, and places of worship. The guides are available in printer friendly versions so that you can easily bring the ones you want with you.

The LAC page also contains volunteer forms so you can assist the various committees (don't forget that volunteers get perks), a link to the Dine Arounds, a list of the Local Advisory Committee members in case you need to contact one of them, and the Conference registration form.
Member News

Bev Butula, Davis & Kuelthau, will be a session speaker at the UWM Continuing Education event “Upgrading to ePractice”, on July 14th. This all day program is for attorneys and paralegals.

Mary Koshollek, Godfrey & Kahn, presented "Using Google in Your Law Practice" to the Outagamie Bar Association on Tuesday, May 10th at the Riverview Country Club in Appleton. The audience was composed of practicing lawyers, county judges and law clerks.

Heidi Kuehl, formerly at Marquette University Law Library, has accepted a position as Research and Instructional Services Librarian at Northwestern University Law library.

Bonnie Shucha, University of Wisconsin Law Library, spoke at the UW Law School's Women Law Students' Association Careers and Cocktails event on April 6, as part of a panel to inform law students about the range of available career opportunities.

Bonnie Shucha, University of Wisconsin Law Library, received a grant from AALL Computer Services-Special Interest Section for the Annual Meeting conference registration. Bonnie has been a member for a few years and is now co-chair of the CS-SIS Blawgs Committee.

Camilla Tubbs, University of Washington student member, will present the results of her research paper on state prison inmate access to electronic legal resources at AALL Annual Meeting in San Antonio. It will take place at the “Joint Roundtable on Service to Pro Se Patrons and Prisoners” held on Monday, July 18th. Camilla also received a grant from LexisNexis to attend the conference.

LLAW members were, again, prolific writers. A variety of legal publications featured articles by our members. Check out the “Bibliography” section of the website for an entire listing. LLAW members also presented seminars at numerous events and locations. What an absolutely wonderful way to promote law librarianship.

I would again like to say “thank you” to those individuals serving on the Board this year. Their commitment and dedication is amazing. Our organization’s growth and promotion, its quality newsletter and spectacular webpage are a result of these individuals, along with their committee members.

Looking forward, next term will surely bring more great things. I hope to see many of you in San Antonio. And remember, next year celebrates the centennial of AALL. Please join us for a membership meeting, join a committee, or let me know if you have any suggestions or comments. I’d love to hear from you!!!!
Grants Committee Annual Report
2004-2005

The grants committee received two applications for the two LLAW grants available for members to attend AALL's Annual Meeting. The grants committee consisting of Pat Ellingson, Jane Colwin and Amy Thornton awarded one $750.00 grant to Mary Mahoney. Ms. Mahoney will summarize her experience at AALL’s Annual Meeting for an upcoming LLAW Newsletter. The grants committee rejected the second application as the applicant did not meet the requirements for the grant.

LLAW President-Elect/President Bev Butula was also given a $750.00 grant to attend the annual meeting.

There were no professional development grants awarded this year.

Announcements regarding the availability of grants were placed in the LLAW Newsletter as well as several emails being sent out to the LLAW email list.

Respectfully submitted,

Amy Thornton, Chair

Special Committee on By-Laws Annual Report
2004-2005

Last fiscal year, at the suggestion of President Elect, Ted Potter, a Special Committee on By-Laws was formed to review the association’s by-laws.

After a thorough review of the existing by-laws, the committee identified seven by-laws revision proposals. After approval by the LLAW Executive Board, the proposals were put to the membership for a vote. All proposals passed overwhelmingly with sixty of ninety ballots returned.

The committee also did an extensive review of association’s Procedures Manual and identified forty-five proposed revisions which were approved by the LLAW Executive Board. One significant change was the addition of a set of procedures for future Special Committees on By-Laws, which the committee recommended be formed every five years.

I would like to thank committee members, Carol Schmitt and Connie Von der Heide for their hard work this year. Thanks to their efforts, the process was relatively smooth and efficient.

Respectfully submitted,

Bonnie Shucha, Chair

Nominating – No report.

Placement – Liz reported (via Bev) that she is considering doing another salary survey next year.

Program – Bev reminded those present of the “fifth quarterly” membership meeting of the year, which will be the joint event with SLA-Wisconsin Chapter at ComedySportz on April 13th. There will be drawings for an IPOD and Swets may have a raffle item also.

Public Access – Paula reported the following:
1. Statewide Survey Project (see last meeting minutes for details) update: Phase II: Still waiting for one county to respond to survey. Phase III: Waiting for 2 volunteers to check in with 3 library systems’ catalog checks. Phase IV: Just about to start.
2. @ Your Law Library Presentation
   Paula is beginning to draft PowerPoint presentations and handouts/brochures for presentations to community organizations and agencies about the value of law libraries (with a focus on public law libraries).
3. Other business outside PALI, but noteworthy: Paula is offering written testimony for a petition currently before the Supreme Court to amend the SCR and Statutes to give the Records Mgmt Committee authority to create statewide pro se forms. PALI’s statewide survey on the public access to legal information and assistance will be mentioned.

Public Relations - Kellee said AALL is asking for pictures and other types of publicity from our meetings and activities. She also needs help setting up the LLAW table at the AALL conference.

Articles Subcommittee - Bev’s article will appear in the April Wisconsin Lawyer; also there are articles slated for the WALA Newsletter and the Wisconsin Law Journal. Bev said that Susan O’Toole will be taking over leadership of the Special Articles Committee from Carol Bannen next year.

Web Site – Amy G is stepping down, and Heidi Yelk is taking her place. They will be getting together to discuss the transition.

Digitization Committee – No report.

By-Laws Committee – Bonnie reported that the revisions to the bylaws passed; 60 ballots total had been returned. The revised bylaws will be printed in the next newsletter.

The Board then finished reviewing and approving the proposed changes to the Program Manual (proposed changes attached).

VI. Old Business

ORALL Meeting in October – Diane D explained that the Vice President of the Ohio Regional Association of Law Librarians had contacted her to find out whether LLAW would be definitively interested in participating in the ORALL meeting in October. An email poll of the LLAW membership showed that there would likely be very little interest or attendance at this meeting. Diane followed up with the ORALL Vice President to let her know that LLAW would not be involved with this meeting this year.

(Please see Board Meeting on page 12)

VII. New Business

Digitization Committee - Bev said that, since the Revisor of Statutes Bureau is mostly doing the digitization on its own, it should be time to put this committee on inactive status. The Board agreed.

Bev reported that Laura Olsen-Dugan told her about a request from the WHSLA to sponsor and support a mentor program with the UW-Madison Library School at a cost of $1,500 for three years. Due to the amount of money requested, the Board chose not to move forward on this without details on how the money would be spent.

Bev said that since AALL’s Centennial year is 2006, they are asking chapters to have a special Centennial Committee. The Board did not agree to create a committee for this at this time.

Bev will be attending a meeting of the Wisconsin Libraries Association discussion group on May 31st which relates to legislative issues. She will let the Board know.

VIII. Other Announcements – No announcements.

IX. Adjournment – the meeting adjourned at approximately 1:35 pm.
Motion: Carol S; second: Kellee

Respectfully submitted,
Diane Duffey

Government Relations – No Report.

Grants – Amy Thornton reported (via Bev) that there is still time to apply to LLAW for a grant for attending the AALL annual meeting.

Membership – Carol S reported that there are currently 107 LLAW members.

Newsletter – Julia said the Spring issue has been sent out. As always, articles and member news are welcome for submission.

Nominating – Amy B said that this is the time to solicit people for positions as LLAW officers. Even if people have served as officers before, they are encouraged to serve again -- LLAW is a great organization to be involved in.

Placement – Liz Shelton said she is consistently forwarding job announcements to the LLAW listserv.

Program – Bev switched her Presidential hat for her Program Chair one to report that the very final meeting of the year for LLAW will be on April 13th – a social meeting to be held jointly with SLA-Wisconsin Chapter in Milwaukee. The program will be a one-hour show by ComedySportz.

Public Access – Paula’s report is below:

“Public Access to Legal Information and Assistance in Wisconsin: A Statewide Survey” is the title of the project that PALI is working on in conjunction with the Dane Co Legal Resource Center and WI State Law Library. Here is a summary of the action on this project:

Phase I: Surveys of the District Court Administrators regarding legal assistance programs available to the public in courthouses—100% return rate

Phase II: Surveys of Clerks of Circuit Court regarding legal resources available to the public in courthouses—67 of 72 counties have turned in surveys, the other 5 are still pending (93% return rate so far)

Phase III: Examination of public, academic, and special libraries websites and catalogs for currency of and access to legal resources. The two most populous cities’ public libraries in each county will examined as well as any special or academic libraries in the county. Three volunteers (so far) from UW-Madison’s library school will be helping with this phase of the project by completing catalog searches and examinations of library websites.

Phase IV: Review of data gathered. A written report summarizing findings will be generated and presented to the court system, interested court and legal officials, as well as the public. Hopefully, this includes publication of a summarized report in library or legal professional journals.

Public Relations
Kellee reported that a program proposed by two LLAW members will be featured at this year’s Wisconsin Library Association conference, “Great River, Great Libraries,” in La Crosse; Carol Schmitt and Bev Butula will present on “Legal Information from the Desktop.”

Articles Subcommittee: Carol Bannen reported that a couple of articles are scheduled to be published very soon, including one for the Wisconsin Association of Legal Administrators. If anyone has an article or wants to author one, they should contact her.

Web Site – No Report.

Digitization Committee – No Report.

VI. Old Business - No old business to report.

VII. New Business
Laura Olsen-Dugan said that volunteers will be needed among UW SLIS alumni for the library school’s upcoming centennial in June 2006.

VIII. Other Announcements – No other announcements.

IX. Adjournment – The meeting adjourned at 7:40 pm.

The business meeting was followed by an informative program on the state of public libraries and handling legal and business reference questions in public libraries. Presentations were given by Barb Dimick, Director of Madison Public Libraries and Mary Jo Hansen, reference librarian with the Grafton Public Library.

A big thank you to Bridget MacMillan of LexisNexis Librarian Relations for sponsorship of tonight’s meeting, and for providing the great gifts and raffle item.

Respectfully submitted,

RECOMMEND READINGS
By Cindy May, University Of Wisconsin Law Library

This guide is intended for those who infrequently need to research European Union law or find EU official documents. It discusses dictionaries and directories, treaties, legislation, the Official Journal of the European Union, case law, official reports, journals, research guides, and more.

This article discusses the specific parts of the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct that relate to an attorney’s legal research and writing obligations, and supplies case law examples of sanctions meted out to attorneys found to be in violation of the rules.

FindLaw is a one-stop legal information Web site geared toward a broad audience. Beth Bland, Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek S.C., briefly describes FindLaw’s content from the viewpoint of a legal professional.

This bibliography lists and annotates resources on international legal compliance. Each entry includes numbers that link it to one or more of ten topical themes defined in the bibliography’s introduction.

The author requested sample online legal research billing policies via the law-lib discussion forum. In this article, she describes what she learned from the many variables she found in such policies, and how she used the results of her survey to develop a new policy for her library.

LLAW President Bev Butula, Davis & Kuelthau, explores the fair use doctrine in the context of a law firm environment, and reminds firms to evaluate internal procedures to ensure that daily activities truly are fair use.

This article examines the USA PATRIOT Act and its application, and explores the controversy that arose between the Department of Justice and ALA regarding the Act’s application to libraries.

Cox, Vincent M. “Freeing Unpublished Opinions from Exile: Going Beyond the Citation Permitted by Proposed Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 32.1.” Washburn Law Journal 44:105-126 (Fall 2004)

This note presents the arguments on both sides of the debate surrounding the treatment of some appellate opinions as unpublished and non-binding. It offers an approach that would ensure that all opinions issued by an appellate court would be given binding precedential value in that court.

This article argues that the law of copyright duration has often failed to function reliably. It concludes with proposals to curtail the law’s growing complexity and bring greater certainty to the duration of copyright protection and to the well-being of the public domain.

This comment analyzes the evolving law of hyperlinks. It discusses ways for website owners to protect their sites from hyperlinking, and proposes a two-part test, based on the intent and purpose of links, to apply in hyperlinking cases.

In 1993 fans rushed the field at the end of a football game in Camp Randall, resulting in many injuries and lawsuits. This case study analyzes data associated with the incident to explore whether it could have been avoided if different decisions had been made and different strategies employed.

Once again this annual review and comparison of the four major legal databases covers new features and enhancements.

This note discusses the issues, facts and rulings in the Verizon cases, which concerned the conflict between copyright protection and the right to preserve anonymity.

In this, the fourth of six articles, all of the major legal secondary sources are identified. The author explains how to use secondary sources to gain a basic understanding of the laws affecting educators, and how to use secondary sources to access primary sources relating to education.

This note provides background on the doctrine of copyright misuse, summarizes the leading cases, considers the question of what constitutes misuse, and suggests that courts shift the remedy away from that used in patent misuse toward one better suited to copyright.

Mr. Keefe argues that legal research instructors should begin by teaching today’s students how to do legal research using electronic resources, and only after that to move on to when and how to use more traditional print resources.

Kiley, Joanne and Ikons, Laura. “Electronic Updating: Is Your Citation Still Safe?” Legal Information Alert 23(6):1, 3-5 (June 2004)

This article examines the major electronic updating services for cases, statutes, and regulations, along with other sources for staying current.

The author discusses: deciding to conduct a survey, planning the survey, designing the questionnaire, disseminating the survey, ensuring a good return, collecting and analyzing the data, and communicating the results.

This article reports the results of a study of the factors that determine the choice of open source licensing. The study found that software geared toward end-users and software that is likely to be attractive to consumers, among other factors, tend to have more restrictive licenses.

In this lecture, Prof. Lessig argues that copyright law must change to accommodate digital technology.

This article discusses three Supreme Court decisions concerning libraries, placing them in the larger context of the Court’s view of the role of libraries in American society.

This bibliography attempts to select the best of library design materials and arrange them by topic, with annotations. It includes books, book chapters, reports, and articles.

This note discusses how current technological protection measures expand copyright holders’ control beyond the scope of fair use, and how requiring publishers and vendors to fully disclose the characteristics of the technological protection measures embedded in their products can help protect fair use.

In September 2004 the Law Library of Congress unveiled a suite of enhanced navigation, search, language, accessibility, and user-friendly features to support broad public use of the Global Legal Information Network (GLIN). Law Librarian of Congress Rubens Medina provides an overview of the initiatives, principles, and processes that combined to shape the new system.

This casenote analyzes why the Third Circuit’s second ACLU v. Ashcroft decision was correct, and concludes by emphasizing the importance of parental rights and free speech.

In Eldred v. Ashcroft, the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the Sonny Bono Copyright Term Extension Act. One problem resulting from the Eldred decision is that of obtaining licenses to reproduce old works of limited commercial value. The authors suggest a solution either by continued evolution of the doctrine of fair use or by an amendment to the Copyright Act.

The author argues that in 1789 the word “progress” meant “dissemination.” This article seeks to explain the divergence between current intellectual property law and the logical dictates of that original constitutional meaning.

Poorman, Mark E. “Sources of United States of America Legal Information in Languages Other than English.” LLRX (March 27, 2005) http://www.llrx.com/features/otherthanenglish.htm

This note explores the possibility that the Supreme Court, in its eagerness to protect children, twisted established First Amendment doctrines to uphold the Children’s Internet Protection Act and declined to address other legal issues that weaken CIPA’s constitutionality.

This paper attempts to demonstrate that the DMCA is not justifiable public policy because it grants too much power to the copyright holder and thus creates a chilling effect on fair use, free speech, future innovation, and competition.

(Please see Recommended Readings on page 19)

This note highlights the lengths to which patent holders, particularly drug companies, have gone in order to get additional life out of their patents. It suggests that the differing treatment of patent versus copyright extensions is a result of the government's differing treatment of the public domain for the technological and scientific arts versus the public domain for the creative arts.

LLAW member Paula Seeger, Dane County Legal Resource Center, composed this handy topical compilation of Wisconsin legal resources available on the Internet.

Charts summarize publication and citation rules for unpublished opinions in both federal and state appellate courts.

The author discusses website features that would be valuable to pro se litigants, surveys academic law libraries offering those features, gives examples of websites specifically designed with pro se library users in mind, and offers suggestions on how to structure websites to provide services to pro se users.

In U.S. v. A.L.A., the Supreme Court ruled that Internet access in libraries is not a public forum, and therefore Congress could require filtering as a condition of federal funding. This note concludes that the Court’s definition of a public forum is flawed and should be amended.

This article challenges the conventional wisdom about fair use. It argues that the fair use doctrine has played a central role in the triumph of a vision of copyright that privileges the inherent property interests of authors in their work over the goal of progress in the arts.

This bibliography collects and annotates works both by and about Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Entries for works written by her are arranged by subject.

PROPOSALS

Proposal 1

Article II, Section 7 of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

Section 7. Quorum; Action. Forty percent (40%) of the Fifteen active members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the members present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act or decision of the members, unless the law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws require a greater proportion.

57 - YES 3 - NO

Reason for proposed amendment: It has become difficult to obtain a quorum at our membership meetings. Compared to other chapters and to AALL itself, the number of members that LLAW requires for a quorum is quite high. In addition, the AALL Bylaws Committee has suggested changing the quorum requirement from a percentage to set number.

Proposal 2

Article II, Section 8 of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

60 - YES 0 - NO

Reason for proposed amendment: Many organizations, including AALL, have made the switch from Robert’s Rules of Order to The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure (Sturgis). Sturgis is generally considered to be simpler and easier to use.
Proposal 3

Article IV, Section 3(A) of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

(A) Election; Term of Office. The officers of the corporation shall be chosen annually by the active members by mail ballot, and each officer shall hold office for one calendar year or until such officer's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified or until such officer's death, resignation, or removal. Officers may be re-elected to serve more than one term in office.

60 - YES  0 - NO

Reason for proposed amendment: LLAW would like to investigate the possibility of conducting electronic balloting for election of officers. However, the word “mail” from this section must first be striken from this section of the by-laws.

Proposal 4

Article IV, Section 3(C) and Section 3(D) of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

(C) Nominations. No later than February March 1 of each year the Nominating Committee shall present to the membership a slate consisting of at least one candidate for vice-president/president elect, treasurer, and secretary. The Nominating Committee shall request and retain written acceptance from each candidate placed on the slate. In the event it is known in time that the current vice-president/president elect cannot assume the presidency, someone shall also be nominated for president. Further nominations, except for the office of president, shall be made upon written petition of ten (10) voting members in good standing. Such petitions, accompanied by written acceptance of the nominees, must be filed with the secretary of the corporation not later than February March 15.

(D) Ballots. The Nominating Committee shall mail provide ballots to all paid active members by March April 1. Ballots must be received by the Nominating Committee by March April 30.

60 - YES  0 - NO

Reason for proposed amendment: Moving the deadlines forward one month will give the Nominating Committee more time to identify officer candidates. This change, which was approved by AALL, should not adversely affect the nominations process or the installment of new officers.
Proposal 5

Article V, Section 1 of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

Section 1. Establishment. The Board of Directors or the president may authorize standing and/or special committees to consider appropriate matters, make reports to the president and/or the Board of Directors, and fulfill such other advisory functions as may be designated. The authorization of such standing and/or special committees unless set forth in these By-Laws, and the members thereof, shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board of Directors. Standing committees shall be established for those purposes requiring the continuous attention of the corporation. Special committees shall be established for a stated period to accomplish a specific purpose. At the end of the stated period, the continuation of every special committee shall be decided by the Board of Directors. The standing committees of the corporation shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) Archives
(2) Membership
(3) Newsletter
(4) Nominating
(5) Placement
(6) Program
(7) Public Access to Legal Information
(8) Public Relations
(9) Government Relations
(10) Grants
(11) Web

60 - YES       0 - NO

Reason for proposed amendment: Although the Web Committee has been a standing LLAW committee for the past few years, it has never been officially added to the chapter’s by-laws.

Proposal 6

Article V, Section 4 of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

Section 4. Term of Office. Chairs of standing committees shall be appointed at the close of the annual business meeting for terms of one (1) year beginning June 1.

59 - YES       1 - NO

Reason for proposed amendment: Although the tradition of appointing new officers at the end of the fourth quarterly business meeting will continue, the Board feels that it is not necessary to designate in the by-laws where and when officers must be appointed. This change should accommodate circumstances in which a meeting might not be officially held (such as inclement weather, failure to achieve a quorum, etc.). Additionally, the fourth quarterly meeting isn’t generally referred to as the “annual” meeting.
Proposal 7

Article VIII, Section 1 of the By-Laws of the Law Librarians Association of Wisconsin shall be amended to read:

Section 1. Active members may, by a three-fourths (3/4) vote majority of all votes cast, amend or repeal any or all of the Articles of Incorporation. Active members may, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote majority of all votes cast, amend or repeal any or all of these By-Laws. Notice of any proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation or the By-Laws shall be filed with the secretary at least forty-five (45) days before the meeting at which the amendments are to be considered. The secretary shall place the proposed amendment on the agenda for discussion. Ballots shall be mailed provided to all active members in good standing within fifteen (15) days of the meeting at which the amendment was discussed.

53 - YES 0 - NO 7 - Left Blank

Reason for proposed amendment: During the last by-laws amendment vote in 2000, this section caused confusion until a reading of Robert’s Rules of Order confirmed that a two-thirds majority of votes cast by active members (not two-thirds of all active members) was sufficient to amend the by-laws. Clarifying the language for this section would reduce confusion on this point in the future. Also, the changing the wording from “mail” to “provide” would allow for electronic balloting (see proposal 3).
Amendments to the Procedures Manual

The By-Laws Committee identified forty-five proposed revisions to the LLAW Procedures Manual. At meetings on January 18th and March 31st, the LLAW Executive Board approved all of the revisions. Those changes appear below.

For convenience, both the old and new language is incorporated here. Text to be striken is indicated by a line through it. Newly created language is indicated by shaded text.

Committees - Special Committee on By-Laws Chair

1. Must be an active member of the chapter.

2. Attends all chapter membership and board of directors meetings.

3. Appoints committee members for his/her term as chair jointly with the incoming president. Due attention should be paid to the number of members needed for effective operation, geographical distribution, distribution by type of library, and level of skill and experience required. Notifies committee members of their appointment.

4. Submits goals and budget for the coming year to the president by June 30.

5. Submits an annual report for the calendar year in which he/she was the chair to the president by May 31.

6. Is prepared to report orally on committee activities as called upon at any membership meeting. If unable to attend, is responsible for arranging in advance for a representative to present the report.

7. As a special committee, the By-Laws Committee may be formed at the request of the president, typically every fifth year (years ending in 0 and 5).

8. Is responsible for reviewing chapter by-laws. Amendments to any or all by-laws must be approved by a two-thirds majority of votes cast by active chapter members.

9. At the request of the president, may also be responsible for a review of the chapter procedures manual. Amendments to the procedures manual must be approved by a majority vote of the board of directors. A member vote is not required.

10. Solicits suggestions for revision from board of directors and chapter membership and drafts proposed language for all affected by-laws and/or procedures manual sections.

11. Presents amendments to board of directors for approval. Upon approval, sends proposed by-laws amendments to the AALL By-Laws Committee for review. Revises language if required by AALL and seeks re-approval by board of directors.

12. Upon final board approval, submits proposed by-laws amendment language to secretary, web and newsletter committee chairs so that notice of proposed amendment is made to chapter members. Such notice must be made at least forty-five days before the membership meeting at which the amendments are to be considered.

13. Presents by-laws amendments at a membership meeting. Within fifteen days of membership meeting, provides ballots to all active members in good standing and to archives committee chair. All amendments should be presented separately on ballot.

14. Counts ballots and announces results to membership. Submits final amended language to secretary, web, newsletter, and archives committee chairs. Also submits to AALL By-laws Committee for their records.
